AUTHORITY AND DUE PROCESS

AUTHORITIES

SECTION 1: AUTHORITY – MAAD shall exercise the following powers:

- A. Represent MAAD in all international, national, and regional athletic competitions;
- B. Serve as the coordinating body for amateur athletic activities in the Midwest region;
- C. Exercise jurisdiction over amateur athletic activities and competitions held in the Midwest region;
- D. Establish procedures for the determination of player eligibilities for participation in regional competitions;
- E. Designate the championship and/or invited teams to represent MAAD in national athletic competitions; and
- F. Recommend the names of qualified MAAD individuals and/or teams to USADSF and/or USADB to represent the United States in any sport that are held for the Deaflympics, Deaf Pan American Games, or any other relevant international or national athletic competition.

SECTION 2: FINAL AUTHORITY – Except when it may conflict with applicable naaD or national sports associations rulings, or when overruled on appeal, the MAAD Board of Delegates shall be the final authority on all decisions concerning the actions of its elected Officers, Executive Board, Committees, and Councils.

SECTION 3: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY AND PROCEDURE – Except where the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations provide direction, the current ROBERTS' RULES OF ORDER shall govern.

RULE INTERPRETATION AND CONFLICT RESOLUTION

SECTION 1: INTERPRETATION – The procedure for interpretation of the MAAD Bylaws and the organizational documents except for Rules and Regulations of its Players Councils shall be as follows:

- A. Any MAAD Member Club in doubt about the applicability of any bylaw, or rule or regulation, shall request an interpretation.
- B. The request shall be in writing by the Member Club Secretary (-Treasurer) to the MAAD Vice President.
- C. A copy of the MAAD Vice President's response to a Member Club request shall also be sent to each member of the MAAD Executive Board.

SECTION 2: CONFLICTS – In cases of conflict between the bylaws or rules of any Club Member and those of the MAAD, the MAAD Bylaws shall supersede and be final.

SECTION 3: APPEALS – The ruling of the MAAD Vice President shall be binding; however, appeals may be made in writing by any MAAD Member Club through its Secretary. Appeals shall go through the following process as necessary:

- A. to the applicable Players Council,
- B. to the Executive Board, and
- C. to the MAAD Board of Delegates;

SECTION 4: ARBITRATION – In the event of a dispute that is brought to arbitration, MAAD shall submit to binding arbitration, conducted in accordance with the commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association, in any controversy involving the opportunity of any amateur athlete, coach, trainer, manager, administrator, or official to participate in amateur athlete competition, as provided for by the USOC's Constitution and Bylaws.

PROTESTS, GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND RIGHT TO APPEAL

SECTION 1: GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE – The Grievance Committee shall consist of the three (3) elected officers. One of whom must be either the President or the Vice President and one will be Delegate-at-Large, are required to form a quorum. The Grievance Committee shall have the following duties:

- A. Receive and review any conflict and dispute among any registered teams or players, and make a report thereon, if applicable, with recommendations and procedures for prompt and equitable resolution of grievances of its members, to all parties involved;
 - B. Investigate, hear, and rule upon all matters concerning the status of any amateur athletes, i.e. eligibility to compete;
 - C. Suspend or terminate any Club Member, Independent Team Member, or any individual by a 2/3 majority of the members voting on the Grievance Committee. All rights and privileges of a member or individual player, except the right to appeal, shall cease upon suspension or termination of membership. All rights and privileges of an individual player, except the right to appeal, shall cease upon suspension or termination of that individual's status as a player;
 - D. Process all grievances pursuant to the Grievance Procedures provided in this document; and
3. Exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be granted or imposed by the Executive Board or the Board of Delegates pursuant to the MAAD Bylaws. The powers enumerated in this Section are not intended to limit or restrict the power or authority of the Grievance Committee otherwise established or granted by applicable law or the MAAD Bylaws.

SECTION 2: PROTESTS – These procedures will be followed when any registered team or player is protesting against any opposing team or player, any official or Tournament Director's rule interpretation: ($100 mandatory deposit to Tournament Director to file a protest. This deposit will be refunded for a successful protest. If unsuccessful, MAAD keeps the deposit.)

- A. Player Eligibility – A protest may be made regarding any player's eligibility at any time during a game. Any registered team or player protesting the eligibility of a player of the opposing team must furnish proof that the player is ineligible. In case of an obvious violation of eligibility rules, the request underlying the protest may be granted immediately by the Tournament Director and/or MAAD Executive Board.
- B. Rule Interpretation – A coach or manager may lodge a protest regarding an official's or the MAAD Tournament Director's interpretation of Rules and Regulations but must do so at the time of the incident. For such a protest to be officially recognized, the protesting coach or manager must use the words, "I protest" and complete the necessary paperwork. The game may continue to be played while the protest is pending.

SECTION 3: PROCEDURES FOR PROTESTS –

- A. A protest concerning player eligibility or rule interpretation must be lodged with the referee or umpire, or the MAAD Tournament Director at the time of the incident. The referee or umpire will stop the game and gather with the team coaches or managers and the MAAD Tournament Director for a ruling on the protest. The time of the game and the names of the players on the court/field must be recorded by the umpires or referees when the game is stopped.
- B. Any person or team that seeks to protest must notify the MAAD Tournament Director that a protest is being registered and must complete and submit the protest form in writing to the recorder of the Grievance Committee no later than 3 hours after the conclusion of the tournament in which the incident occurred.

SECTION 4: PENALTIES FOR ELIGIBILITY VIOLATIONS –

- A. Any team found to have ineligible player(s) during a competition will forfeit the contest. All points won in games in which an ineligible player was used will be forfeited.

- B. Violation of this rule makes a player ineligible. The player is barred from participation in MAAD competition for the remainder of the tournament or until the final decision/ruling of the Executive Board.

SECTION 5: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES – The procedures will be followed when any Club Member or Independent Team Member of MAAD files a grievance against any other Club Member or Independent Team Member of MAAD, or an individual player based on any portion of MAAD's Bylaws and Rules & Regulations:

- A. COMPLAINT – Any club, team, or individual member of MAAD dissatisfied with or aggrieved by any interpretation, action, or decision of MAAD may submit a written complaint to the MAAD Secretary.
 - 1. Deadline – The complaint must be submitted to the MAAD Secretary not more than 3 months after the effective date of the said interpretation, action, or decision to review.
 - 2. What the Complaint must include – This complaint must contain a statement of the relevant facts, explain the relief requested and be accompanied by the record. This complaint must include any documents to be considered on review and a copy of the adverse decision, if it is in writing.
 - 3. Who the Complaint is against – The complaint must identify whether it is against a Club Member, an Independent Team Member, or a player or manager or coach or scorekeeper of either a Club or Independent Team.
 - 4. Who the Complaint is from – The complaint must identify whether the complaining party is MAAD, an officer of MAAD, a Club Member, an Independent Team Member, or a player or manager or coach or scorekeeper of either a Club or Independent Team.
 - 5. Grounds for Complaint – The complaint may assert any of the following grounds:
 - i. Any violation of the Bylaws or Rules and Regulations of the MAAD;
 - ii. Any inappropriate or unauthorized expenditure or taking of MAAD funds;
 - iii. Any refusal to cooperate with the Officers of MAAD;
 - iv. Any attacks on the Officers of MAAD outside of the authorized procedures pursuant to the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the MAAD.
 - 6. Respondents Must Get Copy of Complaint – If any respondents are named in the complaint, the MAAD Secretary shall provide a copy of the petition, together with any accompanying documents, to each respondent within 10 days after receiving the complaint. Each respondent may file a written response to the complaint with the MAAD Secretary, and shall provide a copy of any such response to the complaint, at any time prior to the hearing.

B. GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE –

1. Receipt of Complaint – The MAAD Secretary must provide a copy of the complaint to the Grievance Committee within 5 days after receipt of the complaint.
2. Setting the Date of Hearing – Within 15 days after a complaint has been received by the MAAD Secretary, the Grievance Committee shall set a date, time and place for hearing to consider the complaint at the next tournament and shall inform all parties concerning such date, time and place. The hearing shall take place no more than ninety (90) days from the date that the complaint was received by the Grievance Committee.
3. Authority to Resolve Dispute – The Grievance Committee may attempt to resolve the dispute informally to the satisfaction of all parties prior to the date set for the hearing and may implement any resolution agreed upon by all parties.

C. HEARINGS –

1. Record of the Hearing – The Grievance Committee may make a record of the hearing, which may be in the form of a video documentation and/or a summary record of the proceedings. The record shall be made available to each interested party upon request and payment therefore.
2. Evidence and Process – At all hearings, all parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present oral or written evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, and to present such factual claims as desired. The rules of evidence shall not be strictly enforced, but rules of evidence generally accepted in administrative proceedings shall be applicable.
3. Burden of Proof – The burden of proof shall be upon the complainant. Upon completion of the presentation of the complainant's evidence, the respondent, if there is one, may move to dismiss. If such motion to dismiss is denied, the respondent shall then have the burden of proof to counter any evidence presented by the complainant.

D. DECISION:

1. Vote of the Grievance Committee – A majority of the members of the Grievance Committee that attended the hearing shall render a final decision in any hearing.
2. Deadline for Decision of the Grievance Committee – The Grievance Committee shall render a final decision within sixty (60) days after the date that the hearing concludes.
3. Communication of the Decision – The decision shall be communicated to all by certified mail.

4. Reconsideration of the Decision – Petitions previously considered and decided upon by the Grievance Committee shall not be reopened for consideration except by direction of the Board of Delegates upon a showing of sufficient cause.

E. APPEAL –

1. Method of Appeal – Any party to a hearing may appeal a decision to the Board of Delegates by filing a written statement of appeal with the MAAD Secretary.
2. Deadline to Appeal – Any party that wishes to appeal must do so within thirty (30) days after the date of the Grievance Committee's decision.
3. Appeal Subject to Acceptance by Board of Delegates – Only when there is a vote to accept the appeal by two-thirds (2/3) of all the members of the Board of Delegates, will the appeal be allowed to proceed. Such a vote must occur within one year of the date of the decision
4. Review of Appeal – Upon review of the appeal, the Board of Delegates may choose to review the evidence, and then uphold or overturn the decision of the Grievance Committee. Alternatively, the Board of Delegates may choose to remand the matter to the Grievance Committee for further consideration.
5. Reinstatement – A complaint for reinstatement to eligible status can be acted upon at any time by the Executive Board, subject to ratification by the Board of Delegates at an Annual Meeting immediately. A two-third (2/3) vote of those members of the Board of Delegates present and voting is necessary to ratify reinstatement.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

SECTION 1: AUTHORITY FOR SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION – The Grievance Committee shall have the right to suspend for a period of time or to expel anyone, when such person, team, or club member has engaged in conduct that is detrimental to the objectives, programs, or ideals of the MAAD.

SECTION 2: NOTICE OF CHARGES WARRANTING SUSPENSION/EXPULSION – The person, team, or club member charged with any conduct that may warrant suspension or expulsion shall be notified of the charge in writing. This notice shall be sent to the last known address by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall include information regarding the charges against the person, team, or club member in detail. The notice shall include a written statement of charges and the penalties which may ensue if such charges are proved. The statement shall contain a date at which time a hearing will be held, with the request that the person, team coach/manager, or club member representative(s) (limit to 2 reps per club) charged shall appear before the Grievance Committee. The statement will demand that the charged person, team coach/manager, or club member representative(s) charged shall answer the charges, in writing, to the MAAD Secretary by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, at least 10 days prior to the date of hearing. A copy of said letter will be sent to Members Club by certified mail.

SECTION 3: SETTING THE HEARING DATE – The Grievance Committee shall hear the charges, and shall set a date of hearing not less than 30 days before an upcoming tournament.

SECTION 4: REFUSAL TO TESTIFY – Any person, team, or club member who, after having been properly requested to do so, fails, without adequate reason, or refuses to appear and testify at any hearing, or to answer any questions pertaining to the hearing, may be suspended from competition or be subject to other penalties or discipline as may be deemed proper. The suspension or other penalties shall continue until such time as the person, team, or club has complied with the investigation or hearing.

SECTION 5: REFUSAL TO SATISFY A PENALTY – Any person, team, or club member who, after having been penalized after a hearing, fails or refuses to pay the penalties which has been assessed, may be suspended from competition or subject to other penalties or discipline as may be proper. The suspension or other penalties shall continue until such time as the person, team, or club has complied with the investigation or hearing.

SECTION 6: HEARING – The hearing provisions under the Grievance Committee provided in these Bylaws shall apply to all hearings held pursuant to this Article on Suspension or Expulsion. Any decision made by the Board of Delegates following a hearing shall be final, and any controversy so decided shall not be reconsidered by the Grievance Committee.

REVISIONS

This document can be revised only by the Board of Delegates at the Annual Meeting.
